

Praise for SRLC '23

“Here’s the thing: getting more workers funded is the biggest deal [in] fulfilling the Great Commission. So if we grow in our expertise on how we get people to the field, more people fully funded and vision-driven [knowing] that they can run the race and do it successfully, with longevity, then that’s a gamechanger for the Great Commission.”

—Jen Fortner, Assembly of God World Missionaries

“If you want to accomplish your ministry’s vision, you need to be at SRL...also, it’s really fun! If you are laboring in any ministry partner development capacity—if you feel alone, if you feel isolated—then you’re going to find your people.”

—Paul Rutherford, Probe Ministries International

“Because of the emphasis on being spiritually healthy, God helped me to face [my] doubts. I feel like I’ve overcome some of the lies that I believed about me being a leader.”

—Karen Devers, Dynamic Church Planting International

“I like being able to network with other mission organizations. It is encouraging to me to see all the different ways the Lord is moving throughout the world...but also to learn from other organizations, to learn what their best practices are, and to see if there are some things I can glean to bring back to [my ministry].”

—Cathy Rozmiarek, Cadence International

“Fully funded missionaries and organizations are critical for reaching the world for Christ. SRLC gives amazing resources and tools to help accomplish that. It’s also super fun, just to hang out with other people who have my job!”

—Sarah Strickland, Youth Dynamics
