Be Vision Driven

unbound

A black and white photograph of a forest path. The path is made of dirt and stones, winding through a dense forest of tall, thin trees. The ground is covered with fallen leaves and branches. The text "Vision leaks" and "Mission drifts" is overlaid on the left side of the image. "Vision" and "Mission" are in a white, serif font, while "leaks" and "drifts" are in a teal, italicized serif font.

Vision leaks
Mission drifts

“The only thing worse than being blind is having sight but no vision.”

- Helen Keller

A person is sitting on the edge of a large, flat rock overhang on the right side of the image. The background consists of a vast, layered mountain range under a clear sky. The entire image has a teal color overlay. In the top left corner, there is a faint, repeating pattern of the word 'unbound' in a light teal color.

One person with vision in their eyes can change the world.
