Fiscal Transformation: Teaching Your Staff How to Avoid a Personal Shipwreck

Overview- Fiscal Transformation

- Three Conversions
- Transformation vs. Behavior Modification
- Community

Why Stewardship?

- Cru MPD Mission Statement: To Equip and Inspire Laborers to Be Christ Centered, Fully Funded, Financially Faithful.
- Position Statement: Through MPD the Lord supplies His provision to further the gospel. Faithful financial stewardship maximizes the Lord's provision to further the gospel.
- Lordship – Romans 12:1
- To be entrusted with true riches – Luke 16:11-13
- God created - Genesis 1, 2
- God retains ownership - Psalm 24:1
- Requirement of a steward – I Corinthians 4:2

What Outcomes?

- Character: Growing in
  - Christ-like generosity
  - Faithfulness
  - Contentment
- Practices
  - Spending plan/tracking system
  - Eliminate/avoid consumer debt
  - Save for future needs

Who will champion stewardship and how?

- Able to come along side as an authentic ally
- Able to provide biblical background and basis for financial stewardship
- Able to list and explain priority uses of money in appropriate order.
- Able to help others develop a personal spending plan and systems for tracking spending.
- Able to help others apply a debt snowball approach to paying off debt.
- Able to process with co-laborers large purchase decisions (e.g. autos)

Coach/Champion Challenges

- Our personal issues
- Their personal issues
- Legalities
- Ministry leadership

How Do We Influence?

Interpersonally

- In the context of your normal new staff/seasoned staff member MPD coaching responsibilities
- A staff friend approaches you
- Leadership wants you to engage with a particular person/couple

Conclusion

If we don't take the initiative, what can we expect?

Our stewardship responsibilities:

- Study; resources -
- Live
- Teach
- Shepherd
