Support Raising in Latin America: Barriers or Bridges

Overview-

- Principles that apply in any cultural context
- Barriers to raising support in Latin America
- Bridges – more positive approach
- Past/Future Bootcamps in Spanish in LA
- Conclusions

“The heart of man plans his way, but the LORD establishes his steps.”

Proverbs 16:9

Principles that apply in any cultural context

- Biblical convictions concerning raising support.
- Spiritual component of prayer throughout
- Relationship based (before and/or after)
- People ultimately give to a vision

Barriers

- Network of believers
- Full-time vs part-time raising support
- Shame/honor dynamic
- Local church and Pastor
- Support raising plan
- Project giving vs. Personal Ministry Support
- Local missions and mobilization ministries
- Misconceptions about church role in missions

Bridges

- Connecting with bigger story of what God is doing in the world
- Connecting with what is happening in missions locally, nationally and globally
- Bringing them out of their comfort zones
- Mobilizing the whole church

Conclusion

- Support raising still remains a huge challenge to Latinos reaching the field
- We've learned some things, but are continuously learning even about differences in culture between countries in Latin America
- We have to focus on mobilizing the whole church, not just the candidates
- SRS Training will grow as we do more and more bootcamps, and raise up Latinos to facilitate them.
